To establish a mechanism for the prevention, prohibition and redress of sexual harassment of employees employed by the Company.

To actively promote a social, physical and psychological environment that will raise awareness about and deter acts of sexual harassment of employees.

To undertake all necessary and reasonable steps including the constitution of appropriate committees for purposes of gender sensitization and to conduct enquiries into complaints of Sexual harassment.

To uphold the commitment of the Company to provide an environment free of discrimination and violence against women.

SCOPE & APPLICABILITY

This Policy applies to (a) all the employees, workers and trainees (whether in the office premises or outside while on assignment) of the company and (b) all employees, regardless of their position, including those on contract and sub-contract work with the Company and covers sexual harassment by the Company employees of anyone connected with the company business such as vendors and visitors.

Where the Company employee is subject to sexual harassment by a third party or outsider while such employee is on official duty, the Company will take all necessary and reasonable steps to assist the affected person in terms of support and preventive action.

This Policy covers harassment of women by men, of men by women or between the same sexes.

Harassment is unlawful irrespective of who is involved in the behaviour.

This Policy is not restricted to the Company premises but extends to all locations wherever the Company employees have occasion to interact on company matters or engage in networking including, in vehicles, third party premises, off site where company meetings are held, social networking sites like Facebook, Twitter & other professional networking sites, like LinkedIn; provided that this Policy does not apply when employees decide to meet outside of the Company office location of their own accord and for personal reasons.

DEFINITIONS FOR PURPOSE OF THIS POLICY

Management shall mean the Management of Jumbo Finvest (India) Limited & Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) shall mean the committee formed under the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act-2013.

Sexual Harassment shall mean any of the following:

- ✓ When submission to unwelcome sexually determined behaviour such as sexual advances, requests for sexual favours, and verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature, are explicitly or implicitly made a term or condition of teaching/guidance, education, employment, participation or evaluation of an employee's engagement in the Company.
- ✓ When unwelcome sexually determined behaviour, including but not limited to, sexual advances, physical and /or verbal or non-verbal or conduct, such as loaded comments, remarks or jokes, letters, phone calls, SMS or emails, gestures, exhibition of pornography, lurid stares, physical contact, stalking, sounds or display of a derogatory nature have the purpose and/or effect of interfering with an employee's work or academic performance or of creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive employment, educational or living environment.
- ✓ When an employee uses with a sexual purpose, the body or any part of it or any object as an extension of the body in relation to other employee without his/her consent or against his/her will, such conduct will amount to sexual assault.

- ✓ Bullying is any intimidating or insulting behaviour which makes any employee feel vulnerable, humiliated and/or threatened. Legitimate and constructive criticism of an employee's performance or behaviour or reasonable requests made of employees in the course of their employment will not constitute bullying.

Any behaviour that falls in the list below or has the same impact as any of the listed item, on an employee:

- Any taunting snide remarks based on sex (including pregnancy, childbirth or related medical condition), sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status or personal Appearance.
- Phone calls or electronic messages that is abusive or offensive to employees and are remarks based on sex.
- Intrusive questions about sexual activity, tales of sexual exploits, comments about People's bodies or asking irrelevant personal questions of a sexual nature to an employee.
- Repetitive unwanted advances (requests for dates or social contact) towards someone or displaying of books, photographs, paintings, films, pamphlets, packages, etc. containing 'indecent representation of women/men'.
- Viewing or sharing through letters, phone calls, electronic instant messaging or e-mail messages any pornographic posters, Internet sites, cartoons or drawings of sexual nature.
- Telling of lewd jokes, offensive language, singing vulgar songs, etc.
- Offensive gestures, staring, leering or whistling with the intention to insult or discomfort someone or another who may hear or see such behaviour.
- Intentional touching of the body that makes a person uncomfortable. Any displays of affection that can make others uncomfortable or are inappropriate at the workplace even if the recipient welcomes it; or Indecent exposure.

Sexual harassment is emotionally abusive and creates an unhealthy, unproductive atmosphere at the workplace. Sexual harassment cases can be classified into two categories - quid pro quo and creation of a hostile working environment:

- ❖ Under the quid pro quo (meaning- this for that) form of harassment, a person or authority, usually the superior of the victim, demands sexual favours for getting or keeping a job benefit and threatens to fire the employee if the conditions are not met.
- ❖ A hostile work environment arises when a co-worker or supervisor creates a work environment through verbal or physical conduct that interferes with another co-worker's job performance or creates the workplace atmosphere that is intimidating, hostile, Offensive or humiliating and experienced as an attack on personal dignity.
- ❖ However, an employee who is sexually harassed can complain about the same even if there is no adverse job consequence.

EMPLOYEE'S RIGHT AND RESPONSIBILITY UNDER THIS POLICY

Any employee who believes he or she has been the target of sexual harassment is encouraged to inform the offending person orally or in writing that such conduct is unwelcome and offensive and must stop.

If the employee does not wish to communicate directly with the offending person, or if such communication has been ineffective, the employee has multiple avenues for reporting allegations of sexual harassment and/or pursuing resolution.

Subject to the reporting procedures set forth hereunder, employees are encouraged to report the unwelcome conduct as soon as possible to a responsible department or Company official. It is usually most effective although it is not required that the official be within the employee's supervisory chain.

Responsible department officials include first- or second-line supervisors, the offending person's supervisor, or any Executive Committee members at the Company's corporate office.

In addition to reporting sexual harassment concerns to a responsible department official, employees who believe they have been subjected to sexual harassment may elect to pursue resolution in several ways, including through mediation, which is an informal way to resolve office problems using a trained mediator who facilitates communication between the parties to the dispute.

If an employee chooses to attempt resolution through mediation, management is obligated by this Policy to send a representative to the table. If a resolution is not reached, the parties may continue to pursue their rights in any other appropriate forum. Employees may ask for the assistance of a mediator by contacting the Company's management.

COMPOSITION OF INTERNAL COMPLAINTS COMMITTEE

A "Complaints Committee", a special Committee is formed with following members as a part of the complaint mechanism:

1. Ms. Iti Gupta, Associate Vice President (Presiding Officer)
2. Ms. Dipti Naruka, Sr. Ops. Officer (Member)
3. Mr. Gopal Singh Rathore, Legal Head (Member)
4. Mr. Vishan Singh Rajput, HR Manager (Member)

It has been decided to appoint Ms. Iti Gupta, Associate Vice President as Head of Complaints Committee. At H.O. and each branch, woman employees can directly file complaints to Complaint Committee. The Complaints Committee will make quarterly report to Board of the Directors and annual report to the Government department concerned of the complaints and action taken by Committee.

DEALING WITH THE COMPLAINT

The Reporting Process:

Any employee who is the recipient of behaviour that can reasonably be construed as constituting sexual harassment is expected to report the same at the earliest. A written complaint relating to sexual harassment shall be lodged within 3 months from the date of the alleged offence to the IC giving details of the incident.

Any delay in reporting must be explained to the IC with sufficient cause. If an employee knows of or suspects the occurrence of such harassment to anyone else, he/she should encourage the recipient employee to report the same and could offer to speak for/accompany the person if the individual needs support.

Complaints under this Policy may be lodged with the reporting manager, any member of the ICC or any senior leader in the Company including the Directors.

Complaints must be made in writing so as to enable a formal investigation and inquiry into the matter. Appropriate measures will be taken by the authorities to ensure confidentiality to the extent possible and that each party gets a fair hearing.

Note: Employees are expected to use the reporting channels and must NOT publicize an alleged incident of sexual harassment.

Any questions/clarifications an employee may have in regard to reporting can be raised with the reporting manager, any member of the IC or any senior leader of the Company.

INVESTIGATION PROCESS

Any complaint received by the ICC shall be kept confidential by the members of IC to the extent Possible.

The person accused will be informed that a complaint has been filed against him/her and no unfair acts of retaliation or unethical action will be tolerated.

The ICC shall ensure that a fair and just investigation is undertaken immediately. The investigation process shall be initiated within five working days of receiving the complaint and shall be completed within 90 days of the receipt of the complaint.

Both the complainant and the alleged accused initially will be questioned separately with a view to ascertain the veracity of their contentions. If required, the person who has been named as a witness will need to provide the necessary information to assist in resolving the matter satisfactorily.

The complainant and the accused shall be informed of the outcome of the investigation. If the investigation reveals that the complainant has been sexually harassed as claimed, the accused will be disciplined accordingly.

If the IC finds that the complainant was/has been sexually harassed in violation of the law:

The victim of sexual harassment has the option to seek transfer of the person who harassed him/her or his/her own transfer; and the IC can determine the compensation including monetary damages, if any (please note, employee cannot opt conciliation in lieu of money) on the basis of loss of career opportunity, hospitalization cost, mental trauma, pain, agony, financial status of respondent and paying capability etc.

Complainant can also seek leave or transfer on the basis of it.

THE RESOLUTION PROCESS:

Every reported complaint of sexual harassment will be reviewed by the ICC. The ICC shall ensure that a fair and just investigation is undertaken immediately and in accordance with the timeframe set forth in above paras and action will be taken by the ICC in accordance with Disciplinary Action given hereunder, as appropriate, within 60 days of completion of the investigation.

Based on the type and severity of the complaint as assessed by the ICC, appropriate resolution process will be suggested in consultation with the complainant and accused. This may be a mediated resolution or a full-fledged investigation by the ICC. If mediation is successful with both parties, they must accept the same in writing. The investigation will be done promptly, thoroughly and in as confidential a manner as possible. The investigation process and end result will be documented in writing.

Those found guilty will be subjected to appropriate disciplinary action.

DISCIPLINARY ACTION

Where any misconduct is found by the ICC, appropriate disciplinary action shall be taken against the accused. Disciplinary action may range from and include oral/written warnings, transfer or a change of role, withholding promotion, suspension or even dismissal. This action shall be in addition to any legal recourse sought by the complainant, in a court of competent jurisdiction.

CONFIDENTIALITY

It shall be the duty of everyone (including the members of the ICC, the complainant, the defendant, witnesses and other participants) involved in the process to ensure that all incidents/grievances/complaints lodged under this Policy are kept as confidential as is possible. Any person (including witnesses) who breaches confidentiality shall be subject to disciplinary action.

PROTECTION AGAINST RETALIATION

Regardless of the outcome of a complaint made in good faith, the employee lodging the complaint and any person providing information or any witness, will be protected from any form of retaliation.

While dealing with complaints of sexual harassment, the ICC shall ensure that the Complainant or the witness are not victimized or discriminated against by the accused.

Any unwarranted pressures, retaliatory or any other type of unethical behaviour from the accused against the complainant while the investigation is in progress should be reported by the complainant to the ICC as soon as possible.

Disciplinary action will be taken by the ICC against any such complaints that are found genuine.

Retaliation will be treated as seriously as an alleged case of harassment and will apply even if the original complaint of harassment is not proven.

Retaliation will be treated as a gross misconduct and the Company will take appropriate action to address any instance of retaliation.

ACCESS TO REPORTS AND DOCUMENTS

All records of complaints, including contents of meetings, results of investigations and other relevant material will be kept confidential by the Company except where disclosure is required under disciplinary or other remedial process or as required by authorities.

DISSEMINATION OF POLICY

The Policy shall be posted on the website of the company at <http://www.jumbofin.com/>.

JUDICIAL REMEDY

An employee who feels that a sexual harassment complaint or a retaliation complaint did not receive prompt and fair response/resolution may contact the MD & Director.

Additionally, nothing in this Policy shall prevent the complainant or the accused from pursuing formal legal remedies or resolution through Government agencies or the courts of law of the country.

COMPLAINTS MADE WITH A MALICIOUS INTENT

This Policy has been developed as a tool to ensure that in the interest of justice and fair play, our employees have a forum and procedures to report instances of sexual harassment. However, if on investigation, it is revealed that the complaint was made with a malicious intent and with the motive of maligning the concerned individual / tarnishing his/her image in the company and to settle personal/professional scores, strict action will be taken against the complainant. This disciplinary action could include termination of employment.

GENERAL

The Company reserves the right to modify and amend the provisions of this Policy, so as to comply with applicable legal requirements, internal policies, or with a view to alter the provisions of this Policy to the extent deemed necessary, appropriate or desirable by the Company from time to time.
